Victim of Murder in Michigan Whose Body Was Found in Lake Believed to Have Been Resident of New York.

SHERIFF HERE TRYING TO ESTABLISH IDENTITY.

Victim Had Quarrelled with a sort-Shoes Had Been Purchased in a Brooklyn Store.

Chariff Britton, of Pawpaw, Van Buren County, Michigan, arrived in Brookto-day to learn if possible the identity of a beautiful young woman who was murdered near South Haven, Michican, and whose body was then thrown into a lake. From articles found on the body it is believed that she lived n Brooklyn.

The murder occurred on the night of Sept. 21, at the Cold Springs Resort which is near South Haven and close to When the body was discovered was thought the woman had either mitted suicide or that her death was the result of an accident, but investigation disclosed bruises on the head and body which satisfied the coroner's jury that a murder had been committed,

The Cold Spring resort is conducted Mrs. Mackey. She testified that the night before the body was found he heard a man and woman squabbling on the porch of the hotel. They quarrelled long and aerimoniously. Then, according to Mrs. Mackey, a blow was struck. She said she heard the oman cry out: "Oh, my God!" then all was silent

After a short lapse of time the man dragged the body of the woman off the porch in the direction of the lake.

special announcement to Christmas givers.

WE do not believe there is a piano in New York of equal merit that can be purchased on terms as reasonable as ours in connection with the sale of the famous Schubert. We urge you to take advantage of this offer because we know you will appreciate our easy payments, whoever receives it will appreciate the Schubert.

We at least want you to visit our piano warerooms and inspect our Christmas showing of fifty new Schuberts in handsome double veneered cases of various woods. After all, though, the exquisite, full, commanding tone of this instrument is directly responsible for the 30,000 Schubert pianos in Piane Dept., Fourth Floor. as many American homes. The Schubert has the indorsement of the best musicians, which it has maintained during the past twenty years,
